WESLEYAN HERE TO-MORROW.

Comparative Records of the Teams.

Trinity meets Wesleyan in the first baseball game of a series of three on Saturday. The second game will be played at Wesleyan next Monday, and the third game will take place on Trinity Field during commencement week.

Trinity's chances for winning the series are the best in years, especially after the brilliant showing of the team on Wednesday when it defeated the strong West Point team by the score of 5 to 3.

On comparative scores Trinity shows far above Wesleyan. Up to this time Trinity has won seven games and lost but three, having been defeated by Yale, Dartmouth and Williams. The Yale game was practically the only one-sided game of the season, Trinity being easily defeated by the score of 7 to 1. Against Dartmouth and Williams Trinity showed up very well, in each case holding the lead up to the fifth inning, when the team showed an unaccountable tendency to go to pieces. This difficulty has been overcome, however, as is shown by the steady playing in the West Point game. In the Williams game we met with the hardest luck of the season, both Trinity pitchers being out of condition. This fact alone lost the game and changed a victory into a defeat.

In the Amherst "Aggies" game Trinity won a well-earned victory. The winning of the game was especially gratifying as the "Aggies" had defeated Williams earlier in the season.

On the other hand, Wesleyan has won only one out of eight games, and tied one. The first of the season Wesleyan defeated Springfield Training School. The scores in this game and in the Trinity-Springfield Training School game are so close as hardly to admit of comparison. Wesleyan was defeated by Williams by a one-sided score, and earlier in the season by West Point. Since the Springfield Training School game Wesleyan has had a disastrous season, although close games were played with Holy Cross and Princeton.

The veteran infield of Trinity is playing a consistent game, and although many errors have been accumulated, strong defensive work has prevented disastrous results. The outfield can always be relied upon and the men under Captain Connor have played the same steady game all season. On the whole the team has improved steadily with each game, inside baseball being a great feature of the system of play. The hitting ability of the team is well known, more than half the members having very creditable batting averages for the season.

It should be remembered, however, that both teams expend every effort to win this series and Wesleyan will put up a stubborn defense. The line-up of the teams will be as follows:

Wesleyan—Aultman l.f., Wright s.s., Capt. Beaton 3b., Marrinan c., Baker 1b., Connelly p., Wilcox r.f., Maynard c.f.,

INTERCOLLEGIATE TENNIS PLAY.

Trinity Makes Creditable Showing.

An unfortunate accident to Burgwin, Trinity's main dependence in the Intercollegiate Tennis Tournament at Longwood, deprived Trinity of any chances to win the doubles or singles championship. Burgwin's wrist became sprained to such an extent that in the contest with the Williams doubles team it practically lost the match for Trinity, thus eliminating the men from the play. As in his weakened condition it would have been sheer folly for Burgwin to continue his play in the singles, his match with Harris of Dartmouth was defaulted. The playing of the team was a great credit to the college, as they defeated the Technology doubles team in the first round, who had been generally conceded to win the championship in that event.

The scores of the Trinity players follow:

First Round.

Nelson, Trinity, lost to Budlong, Brown, 4-6, 3-6.

Burgwin and Pulford, Trinity, beat Coville and Parker, Technology, 1-6, 6-3, 6-4.

Second Round.

Burgwin, Trinity, defeated Richmond, Brown, 4-6, 6-4, 7-5.

Burgwin and Pulford, Trinity, lost to Roper and Oakley, Williams, 4-6, 9-11.

Semi-Finals.

Burgwin, Trinity, defaulted to Harris, Dartmouth.

Wesleyan will be played by the Trinity team at Middletown, and at least a tie match is expected if not a victory for Trinity.

GOLF TEAM DEFEATED.

The golf team, composed of Peek '09, Livingston '09, Clark '11, Craik '12, Reddick '12 and Curtis '12, was defeated yesterday afternoon by the second team of the Hartford Golf Club. The record is in no way discreditable to the college team which is handicapped by lack of competition and of opportunity to practice. The score by the Nassau system was as follows:

| TRINITY.          | H. G. C. 2D.      |

TRIANGULAR TRACK MEET.

Team Goes to Schenectady.

The track team left this afternoon for Schenectady, where it will compete with Union and Hamilton in a triangular meet tomorrow afternoon. Captain Maxson, while still confident that first honors will fall to Trinity, is greatly disappointed at the scoring system that has been adopted. The method used in the intercollegiate of giving points to the first four men instead of three, will be in force tomorrow, and it will readily be seen that this puts Trinity, with its necessarily limited number of contestants, at a disadvantage.

At the college meeting held last night the matter was presented, and it was shown that without more funds the team must be cut to ten or twelve men, who could not hope to get better than third. After some talk a number of men signified their intention to pay their association dues. Several undergraduates subscribed sums of money and a considerable amount was added in small contributions. As a result the team will probably consist of the following 19 men:

Capt. Maxson '09, G. Buck '09, Backus '09, P. Roberts '09, Dwyer '09, Mgr. Judge '10, W. J. Nelson '10, D. Clark '10, Stansfield '10, Burdick '11, A. Clark '11, W. Buck '11, Bleecker '12, Breed '12, Wessels '12, Ahern '12.

1911 IVY BOARD ELECTED.

Personnel of the Board.

The 1911 Ivy board, which has already begun the long task of getting up the blue and gray annual, is constituted as follows:

Editor-in-chief—Clarence E. Sherman.

Business manager—James Porteus.

Fraternity representatives: Delta Psi, Frank J. Brainerd; Alpha Delta Phi, Blinn F. Yates; Psi Upsilon, Philip J. Flanders; Phi Gamma Delta, Stephen W. Green; Alpha Chi Rho, John H. Rosebaugh.

Sherman is a member of the Sophomore Dining Club, was president of his class for the Christmas term of the present college year, and represents the Delta Kappa Epsilon fraternity.

Porteus has been prominent in class activities, being on several important committees, and is a member of the Sophomore Dining Club. He represents the I. K. A. fraternity.

The neutral contingent of the class has not yet elected its representative on the board.

COLLEGE NOTES.

The Senate decided Wednesday to award a large T, qualified by a smaller T on either side, to the members of the tennis team. The height of the large T was fixed at 4 1-2 inches.

The classes of 1911 and 1912 are required to elect their Senate representatives before June 1.

TRINITY DEFEATS WEST POINT.

Close Game Ends 5-3.

Trinity succeeded in putting down the strong West Point team on last Wednesday afternoon at West Point by a score of 5-3. The score speaks for itself and tells the story sufficiently well. It is quite a thing to think of, and to realize a victory over the Army in baseball.

The team played excellently and won through the combined work of the individuals. Olson struck out six men, and allowed but four bases on balls. The hits made by West Point were well scattered, and five was the limit of their ability. Devore and Johnson, for the Army, both pitched good games, but Devore lacked the support necessary, one of Trinity's runs being attained by the Army's left fielder dropping the ball on a fly and allowing Smith to score from second. Devore struck out seven men, and gave no bases on balls, besides allowing but three hits.

The feature of the game was a three-bagger by Xanders, who started Trinity's landslide in the fourth inning, which ended with four added runs. The game would have been closer had it not been for the errors, four against West Point and three against Trinity.

The summary:

EDITORIAL.

A good example of the kind of college spirit that counts is afforded by a glance at the performances of the tennis team. These four men, with virtually no support or encouragement from the college body, have organized, arranged a schedule and taken trips upon their own responsibility and largely at their own expense, but to the end that the college may benefit. That the college has benefitted is patent to every undergraduate from the amount of interest that is taken in the outcome of the matches.

Of course so much favorable comment could not be elicited were it a poor or mediocre team. The team has won or tied every match it has played, defeating Brown University, and making a very creditable showing in the intercollegiate tournament. Because of their record, but still more because of their spirit, they deserve the hearty support of the undergraduate body, and it is to be hoped that it will be given freely.

It should not be—perhaps is not—necessary to urge a full attendance at the Wesleyan baseball games. It is expected that every man in college will be on the bleachers tomorrow afternoon, and that the same men will take the train to Middletown Monday, which will be a college holiday. The baseball teams of Trinity and Wesleyan will both be at their best and determined to win, but the games will be decided fully as much by the work on the bleachers as on the diamond.

COMMUNICATIONS.

Editor of "The Tripod:"

Trinity probably never had an eight-oared racing shell. In 1873 two six-oared Spanish cedar boats were bought and used in the race at Springfield that year, and at Saratoga in 1874. In the spring of 1875 a crew started training, but after the drowning of Cameron in the Connecticut River, it was disbanded and Trinity never again took part in college boat races. Our boats were among the first equipped with sliding seats and were as good as any used in the two races referred to. I cannot recollect the name of the builder of the boats. In the fall of 1875 a six-oared crew, of which Jug Rutherford, Billy Elbert and myself were three, was picked up in college for a race,—which we won—with the Hartford Rowing Club. Two of the Hartford crew were Harry Andrus and Gilbert Heublein. When I left college the boats were stored in our floating boathouse which was moored at the mouth of the Hog. I have an indistinct recollection that when I was at Hartford in 1878 I was told that both boats were stored in Colt's Armory. It is not unlikely that they were, because this would be the nearest and most convenient place to put them away. The chances are that both the boats in the armory, if they are six-oared and almost exactly alike, are our old ones. If I could see them I could readily identify them. The first eight-oared college race was between Harvard and Yale in 1876 at Springfield.

You might get the information from "The Tablet," if the old numbers were filed away in the library.

Very truly yours,
JOHN D. McKENNAN.

To the Editor of "The Tripod:"

Of late it has been a noticeable fact that news of Trinity and its affairs is not seen in the newspapers as much as could be desired. What is the trouble? Several years ago the Press Club was an extremely active organization at Trinity. Then there was article after article of interesting college news in the papers. At the present, however, one may thoroughly look over an entire local newspaper and not find more than a mere note of some minor happening at Trinity.

Our friends down the river seem to have an abundant amount of space each day—why can't Trinity have at least as much? It appears to me that there are enough men among the undergraduates who could gather sufficient publishable news each day to fill the greater part of a column of any newspaper. Why do they not do this?

Every day to have a column or a part of a column devoted to Trinity in each of the several local papers would bring the college in a stronger light before the Hartford people. It would let them know what we are doing, it would bring more people out to the athletic contests, and at the least, it would excite a greater amount of interest. Such news would be of abundant interest to the many local alumni, who do a great deal to support the college. The only possible reason that this is not done seems to me to be lack of sufficient interest among the undergraduates to promote the publicity of Trinity. This hardly seems possible, and I wish to urge that the Press Club be reorganized or that some other means be taken to remedy this fault.

The Connecticut Mutual Life Insurance Company,

HARTFORD, CONN.,

Why should I insure my life?

Because it is a debt you owe to those who are dependent upon your earnings for their support.

You admit that it is your duty to supply their needs from day to day, but forget that it is equally your duty to provide an ever ready and sufficient equivalent for your earning power, which your family stands in constant jeopardy to lose by your premature death.

Guard your family against disaster and yourself against dependency in old age.

When should I insure my life?

Now! The cost will never be less, and tomorrow you may not be able to obtain insurance at any price.

Even if others are not now dependent upon you, take time by the forelock and you will be the better able to meet future responsibilities, and at a smaller premium.

Where shall I insure my life?

In a purely Mutual Company.
In a company that earns, declares, and pays annual dividends.

In a company that is doing a conservative business.

Such a Company is The Connecticut Mutual Life Insurance Company of Hartford, Conn. It furnishes perfect protection at lowest cost.

For further information, address the Company, or any of its agents.

John M. Taylor, Pres't.

Henry S. Robinson, Vice-Pres't.

William H. Deming, Secy.

Extensive courses are offered for study in Mathematics, Ancient Languages, Modern Languages, Economics, History, Ethics, and Philosophy.

A large list of valuable scholarships and prizes may be found in the Annual Catalogue.

For Catalogues and information address the President or the Secretary of the Faculty.
